An introduction about me

Hi I'm Warren and I would like to be your next student voice. I love school and the range of subjects is brilliant in OAT academies. I love performing arts and I think this is something that should be celebrated more. As it is fun and gives so many life skills for example confidence and challenge. My other favourite subjects are geography as it is the study of the world and has so many exciting opportunities and also English as it is linked to drama and is exciting. It is very creative and I believe there is something for everybody in the subject. Also part of the reason is that I have the best English teacher.

What are your top 3 issues that you and/or your peers feel passionate about to work on in RSV and NSV?

Candidate written speech

You should vote for me as I have the skills to make teaching even better in the OAT trust by encouraging them to be the best that they can be. So everyone feels that their teachers are passionate. I would also like to bring in more enrichment and fun activities as research shows that the best way of teaching is to get children involved and to make them feel privileged. Enrichment can be many things these include building children's life skills to building team work. I think this is one of my most important points and this is to make everyone feel like a family in each academy to make them feel privileged and make sure everybody achieves something in their time there. This is made up by competitions and opportunities. Each academy should encourage students to enter to open their world to opportunity. I would also like to add more clubs to academies as this helps students to develop even more. Overall my motto is: higher quality teaching, and changing lives by using more productive learning and by doing this I'd be good for the job.
